

CAGNEY & LACEY: THE MENOPAUSE YEARS

EPISODE GUIDE

THE RETURN The plot renews the friendship and interplay between Cagney and Lacey, but later in their lives. Things have changed: Mary Beth Lacey has quit the police force and is having little success in finding work and Christine Cagney is now a married lieutenant working for the DA's office ... and facing the specter of menopause. They may have lost touch, but circumstances bring them back together again.

TOGETHER AGAIN

New York's toughest lady detectives re-team to solve the murder of a homeless transient who had been terrorizing the residents of a posh apartment building with screaming threats, insults and physical intimidation. Though the cops think the culprit is another street person, Cagney and Lacey believe the real killer is one of the tenants, many of whom have ample reason to have murdered the boorish bum.

THE VIEW THROUGH THE GLASS CEILING

Cagney and Lacey must investigate a local precinct when a murder leads to suspicion of police corruption. When the findings of the DA's police corruption investigation turn out to be useful to Cagney's political ambitions, she makes a choice that will have a lasting impact on her life, Lacey's and the twenty-year friendship between them.

TRUE CONVICTIONS

After the girlfriend of a murder victim from her building commits suicide, Chris gets romantically involved with the girl's still-married father. Chris and Mary Beth are assigned to work New York's first capital murder case in a decade, and everyone seems to have an opinion on capital punishment.
